Plunge into ultimate luxury or make an opulent statement with interiors that feature the eternal combo of black and gold

IMPRESSIONS: DELILAH RODRIGUES

A horde of trends have come and then vanished in the interiors segment, every season sees a new colour trending, which you would or wouldn't see in the next season. But one combination that has lasted since a very long time is the everlasting combination of black and gold. "Gold has been a favourite with interior designers for over a century now. You will see that most luxurious and legendary homes are done in gold. Black and gold have been used together from a long time," says Pulkit Goyal, MD, U-Like Fabrics.

Not all colours when brought together complement each other, but when you talk about black and gold, they make for a classic duo. Elegant, alluring and making a strong visual statement, this
